A FATE WORSE THAN PRISON

In the fall of 1953, when the exchange of prisoners began in Korea after the July truce signing, 23 Americans announced they were sticking with the Communists. Even before the exchange was completed, two GI's recanted and returned to America. Later they were court-martialed, convicted of helping the enemy, and given prison terms.

Since that time, one of the remaining 21 has died. And now Peiping says three more want to come home and will be allowed to do so. In fact, the Red Chinese strongly hint that the other 17 may want the same thing, and that the Communists won't stand in their way.

All this makes quite a commentary on life in Red China. After almost two years of sampling this life, three and perhaps all 20 of the renegade Americans evidently feel that jail in this country is better than "freedom" under the Communists.

For that is what their decision means. One of the three wants to stay in Japan, but the choice will not be his. Once they are turned over by the Chinese, they will be in the hands of U. S. military authorities. And they already have been warned they will be held accountable for their acts.

Most of their days since the exchange these GI's have spent in China. Information about them has been meager. But reports indicate they have been going to school, trying various jobs, and participating in sports.

This was what they said they wanted in late 1953. By contrast, they said of America: "We know what a waits us were we to go back. It is not a pleasant thought."

Now it is different. They are choosing almost certain imprisonment in a free country, as against liberty in a land that is a living prison.

One of the three is even reported to have written home: "I may be hung, but I'd rather be hung than stay here."

Well, so much for the Communist Paradise in the years 1953-55. It appears to have been found somewhat wanting by men who embraced it, for the most part, voluntarily.

Perhaps, as a sort of secondary punishment, the returning renegades ought to be taken on a U.S.-sponsored tour of all the free lands, to tell in their own words what it means to live under Chinese communism.

If they could paint a vivid word picture of the truth of this life, particularly for the benefit of some of the more naive peoples in lands like India and Indonesia, it would constitute a small repayment for their error in deserting the cause of freedom two years ago.

Here is our time. Here are our weapons.

The weapons by the grace of God — if that is the word — have always lain like dust in the world. The main tool is the mind of man, if man is destined to survive on this crowded earth and raise the hard victory of the mind against the pull of easy ignorance.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ben Moreell has opened a bag of tom cats. He is a retired admiral and chairman of the Hoover Commission's task force on water resources and public power.

His 26-man group did the ground-work investigation for the 12-man commission headed by former President Hoover. The task force, set up in November 1953, handed an 1,800-page report to the commission on March 31, 1955.

Now the commission, free to accept or reject the task force findings, will make a recommendation to the President and Congress on water resources and public power. The task force and commission recommendations are due out in about a week.

But in a speech at St. Louis June 15 Moreell, who is chairman of the board of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., indicated:

1. His group recommended to the commission that the federal government sell its power plants — and get out of the business of selling electric power — to private utilities or, if that can't be done, states or local communities.

2. The Hoover Commission itself will not, in its recommendations to the President and Congress, go along with everything the task force proposed. But Moreell did not hint what exactly the commission will say.

He did, however, say its recommendations will be a compromise between political and economic considerations. This seemed an oblique suggestion his task force was motivated strictly by economics.

3. He will "do all in my power to mobilize public support" for those parts of the commission's agrees.

This promise points to perhaps an even more intensive fight, lasting for years inside and outside Congress, on the old dispute over public versus private power or, to put it briefly: Should the government sell electric power in competition with private enterprise?

Moreell did not say outright in his St. Louis speech what his task force's recommendations would be. Nevertheless, here are some of the conclusions he said he arrived at:

1. No new federal power projects should be built. There is no present or prospective need for federal power activities.

2. It is unfair to say federal power plants are a yardstick for the electric rates private utilities should charge since the government plants pay no taxes and have been financed at lower interest rates.

Pulling together some pieces in Moreell's speech, this seems to be his philosophy: the nation's taxpayers in general shouldn't have to bear the costs for the benefits received by local consumers in some particular area of the country.

Besides, he said, the government has used water resources and power development for social and political instead of strictly economic ends. The government, he said, does not owe a responsibility to supply any community, section or region with its power requirements.

Checkups Are Best Weapon In High Blood Pressure

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

An interesting letter which is perhaps typical of the problems faced by many others comes from Mrs. E. and serves to introduce the subject of high blood pressure.

She writes "Recently my husband tried to give some blood to a friend who had an operation and they refused to take it because his blood pressure was 190/110. He is 34 years old and apparently in good health, otherwise."

"He had trouble getting into the Navy ten years ago, but was finally taken. Is this anything to worry about, or is it natural for him when he has had high blood pressure most of his grown-up life?"

IT WILL HAVE to be admitted that a consistent blood pressure in a man of 34 of about 190/110 is too high. However, a single recording of such a figure does not mean much; one would want to know what the blood pressure levels were over a period of time and with several measurements, in order to draw any conclusions.

Worry is of no help whatever, and might even make his blood pressure go higher. He should, however, be under the care of a doctor who can watch the blood pressure and tell him whether or not anything should be done about it.

Something like 600,000 men and women become afflicted with high blood pressure in the United States alone every year.

PRACTICALLY ALL of the different kinds of high blood pressure tend to increase in the later years of life.

It has been stated recently that every person over the age of 45 has a 50-50 chance of dying from high blood pressure, apoplexy, a heart attack, or some similar condition related to high blood pressure or arteriosclerosis.

What can be done about this situation? From early middle life onward a person should have an examination, including measurement of the blood pressure, taken at regular intervals so that the first signs of a rise in blood pressure can be recognized.

IF FOUND EARLY some patients can be cured; in others the mere fact of an early diagnosis makes it possible for the physician to give advice which slows down the development of the symptoms and complications of high blood pressure.

What is still needed to conquer high blood pressure is research. This is now going on in many places. One line of attack is directed toward diet. The rice diet which appears to be one form of low sodium diet, has received much attention, but it is hardly the final answer.

Another extremely interesting result of research is the demonstration in dogs that the brain can produce and empty into the bloodstream a hormone - like substance which acts to increase the blood pressure.

There are many other promising observations which have already been made from research efforts

Electric Gadget Licks Pesky Charcoal Problem

COOKOUTS MADE EASY. New electric gadget above starts charcoal briques glowing in a minute.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Cookouts are now everybody's summertime business. Charcoal broiled foods have given the men an opportunity to assert themselves again. And now the last drawback to outdoor cookery—the danger and mess in getting a good fire started—has been eliminated.

A manufacturer of cookout barbecue equipment has an electric fire-o-matic gadget attached to the grill. With a flick of the switch it starts the charcoal briques glowing in a minute. This electric gadget can be purchased separately and attached to old grills. It would make a de luxe present for a Fourth of July weekend hostess. Here are easy hints on how to marinate chicken for charcoal broiling.

Marinated Broilers

Have broilers split and backbone removed. This is to keep them flat. Wash and dry well to insure even browning. Marinate for one hour in either of the following: Use marinade as a basting sauce while broiling. Start cooking with cut side toward the fire and finish on the skin side. Small chickens will take about 30 minutes, larger ones close to 50 minutes, providing a single layer of coals is used.

Marinade

One-half cup olive oil, ½ cup lemon juice, ½ cup chopped onion, ½ cup chopped parsley.

Add lemon juice to olive oil and mix well. Combine with chopped onion and chopped parsley.

Herb Marinade

One-half teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons thyme, ½ teaspoon fresh ground black pepper, ¼ teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ½ cup bouillon (beef), juice of 1 lemon.

Combine olive oil and lemon juice. Shake vigorously. Pour in bouillon. Add salt, pepper, paprika and thyme. Mix well.

Serve chicken with roasted corn. Pull back the husks and remove all silk. Wrap each ear with two strips of bacon. Replace husks and tie their ends together. Soak corn in cold water for 30 minutes before roasting on grill. Turn two or three times during roasting. Cook about 15 minutes.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Charcoal broiled chicken in herb marinade, corn wrapped in bacon and cooked in its husks, roasted potatoes, buttered rolls, whole beefsteak tomatoes, blueberry pie, coffee, tea, milk.

U. S. International Airlines Protest Lufthansa Routes

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP)—(NEA)—American flag international airlines are now blaming the U. S. State Department for what they call the "giveaway" of New York-to-Latin-America air routes to the revived German government Lufthansa airline.

Following the demands made by the Senate Commerce Subcommittee under Chairman Warren Magnuson (D-Wash.) the U. S. airline representatives will get another chance to protest against the Civil Aeronautics Board decision in this case. It probably won't do any good.

CAB made a unanimous 4-0 recommendation to give Lufthansa Caribbean and South American routes as well as a polar route to San Francisco or Los Angeles. Board Member Josh Lee was in Japan. Member Joseph P. Adams protested that the State Department used undue interference on the board, but in the end he voted with the majority. Chairman Ross Ritzley thinks the board won't change.

NOBODY AT THE WHITE HOUSE and no Cabinet officer can be blamed for any part of this one as they were in the Pacific route case earlier this year. This was entirely a State-CAB deal. But the inside story on how the negotiations were conducted sheds a slightly different light on what has become a celebrated case in Washington and commercial aviation circles.

CAB Member Chan Gurney, a former chairman, was the chief negotiator of the German agreement. He reported to the full board daily so they were kept constantly advised of progress.

Edward Bolster, deputy chief of Transportation and Communications, was chief negotiator for the State Department. He had a small staff of advisers, including Thomas Carter, civil air attaché at the American embassy in Bonn.

ATA—the Air Transport Association of U. S. commercial airlines—was represented by Paul Reiber. He sat in as an observer at all sessions and reported the American carriers' position on all issues. He did not sit with the board when it made its decision.

Before the board took up the German application for air route certification, however, the American airline representatives were called in. They expressed their opinion on which routes the Germans should be given and which they should not get. These were not star chamber sessions, therefore, as had been charged.

STATE DEPARTMENT representatives made clear from the beginning that they would not interfere with CAB in its decisions on which routes the Germans should get. That was the CAB responsibility. But State did ask that the Germans be given generous treatment, as in the best interests of the United States.

The Germans had initially applied for practically every route it was within the power of CAB to grant. Gurney refused to give all these flights. On June 8 it looked as though the negotiations would break down.

The State Department team came over the next morning and made a new plea of more liberal treatment for the Germans—still without indicating which specific routes Lufthansa should get.

After the State boys left, CAB went into another huddle and came up with a new position. This was acceptable to the Germans. But Reiber of ATA, learning of it then for the first time, filed violent objections.

IN DEFENSE OF THE CAB findings, Gurney says Lufthansa will be authorized to make only through flights, Germany to Boston, New York or Philadelphia and on to Latin-American points, or return. This is the long way around for anyone going from Germany to Latin-America.

Present indications are that the traffic will justify one flight a week, says Gurney, or maybe two later on. The list of U. S. routes denied the Germans has not been made public.

American Women Offer Partnership in Marriage

Reader's Digest accomplished what its editors obviously hoped it would with its article "Do European Women Make Better Wives?" appearing in its June issue. It made American wives fighting mad.

For the whole gist of the article is that European women do, indeed, make better wives.

And here are some of the reasons advanced for that nonsensical notion: European girls have been brought up to feel a "traditional dependence on men." American men are getting from European wives "a sense of contentment and comfort." European women are teaching American men that simple pleasures, such as bicycling, hiking and picnicking, can be satisfying.

Well, American girls may not have been brought up to feel "a traditional dependence on men." But they have certainly been brought up to regard marriage as a partnership. Look at the number of young wives working to send their husbands through college, to help them get a start on business, or to help make the down payments on a home.

THEY'RE SHARING SENSE OF ACHIEVEMENT

American men may not be getting from American wives a sense of contentment and comfort. But if not it is because it's not contentment and comfort they are looking for.

The young American husbands and their American wives are sharing something more than contentment and comfort as they build furniture together, paint their houses, work in their yards side by side. They're sharing a sense of achievement. And both husband and wife seem to like it that way.

While European wives may be teaching their husbands that simple pleasure can be satisfying, American husbands are teaching American wives the joys of fishing, hunting, and rooting for the home-town baseball team.

So all in all the Digest article is just so much hokum. Any American man with enough sense to choose the right kind of wife for himself will have as good, if not better, luck right here at home.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It's lucky that Jane Wyman likes work, because she's going to be up to her pretty eyelashes in acting assignments for the next three years.

This week she was laboring on "Miracle in the Rain" with Van Johnson. She finishes July 12, then starts July 15 on a grueling TV schedule that will consume the rest of the year.

Jane recently announced a deal to take over the longtime TV favorite, Fireside Theater. It will be called Jane Wyman's Fireside Theater and she'll preside as both hostess and star.

She explained the project in her Warner Brothers dressing room, where she was having her hair put up.

"This is what I have been after for five years," she explained. "It is one of those deals. I'll do 20 of the shows myself and introduce 16 others. We made our first in the series last week. It stars Victor McLaglen and Wallace Ford, and I believe it's the first time they've been together since 'The Informer'."

Jane said she wasn't just a passive member of the enterprise. It's her company and she has her finger in all phases of production.

All this TV activity doesn't mean she's going to neglect her movie career. As soon as she winds up the TV season, she must report to Universal-International for a picture. If the TV sponsor picks up her option, she'll be set for another 36 half-hours in 1956. Then she'll have to make a film for Warners.

"I've got to do a picture a year during the next three years for Warners and U-I," she said. "The options for the TV show come at the same time as those deals. So if all goes well, I'll be tied up completely for the next three years."

Traffic Death Results In Homicide Charge Against Irvin Jackson

With the death at 4:25 Monday afternoon of Mrs. Goldie Hoffnagle, 63 year old Springfield woman who was critically injured in an automobile crash Sunday night in Springfield, a Jacksonville man, Irvin G. Jackson, living at 512 South Fayette street, was charged with reckless homicide.

The fatal crash occurred at 10:32 Sunday night at Ash street and MacArthur Blvd. in Springfield. Mrs. Hoffnagle was riding with her husband, Harry, when their car and the car driven by Jackson collided.

Mrs. Hoffnagle suffered chest, back and internal injuries. Mr. Hoffnagle received injuries to his right side, right leg and left foot. Jackson was uninjured.

The Jacksonville man was first booked at the Springfield City prison on a charge of reckless driving after the charge was made against him by Springfield Police officers Hobart Roberts and Thomas Tobin.

A witness to the accident, Harry Pater of 300 North Glenwood avenue in Springfield, told officers called to the scene of the crash that the Jackson car was traveling south on MacArthur Blvd. and ran the red light at an excessive rate of speed hitting the Hoffnagle auto which was headed west on Ash street.

Released On Bond
Jackson was taken to the Sangamon county jail Monday morning and was released on $1,500 bond on the approval of the assistant State's Attorney, J. Waldo Ackerman. Justice of the Peace Lawrence Swinyer, who issued the reckless driving warrant against Jackson, first held him without bond, pending the condition of Mrs. Hoffnagle and then released him on bond upon recommendation of Ackerman.

Sangamon county coroner W. C. Telford met with State's Attorney George Coutrakon, the investigating officers, Supervisor of Detectives Thomas Brownell and Swinyer Monday night. Coutrakon signed a warrant against Jackson charging him with reckless homicide. Jackson's bondsman, Nate Strum, was notified and he agreed to surrender Jackson to the Sangamon county authorities Tuesday. Swinyer said Jackson's bond will now be set at $3,500.

Mrs. Hoffnagle's death was the 16th traffic fatality in Sangamon county this year. An inquest will be held.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS

Associated Press News Analyst
It must have been something like 40 years ago that my father took me to see Helen Keller at the Auditorium in Asheville, N.C.

I was more interested in snakes and bicycles than in culture, but my father was a schoolmaster and when anything cultural came to town he went, and, perforce, so did I.

The storybook line for the result is that I should have been greatly impressed for life by the brave struggle and achievements of this woman. The truth is that I then was just bored. I could conceive of what it meant to be blind, deaf and dumb, but not of the struggle to overcome such handicaps. Understanding would come, but later.

She was a relatively young and comely woman at the time, but to a boy she looked older than she does now to a man, although she is just entering her 76th year. She is still blind and deaf, but by no means dumb.

Can you imagine what it would mean to try to learn to speak without any sounds to imitate? Helen Keller did.

Since that time she has devoted her entire life to carrying a message of courage, of hope and achievement, to the handicapped. She has specialized in work for the blind, since that seemed to her to be the greatest need involving more people. But her lectures themselves have been living testimony of what could be done for the stone deaf.

After the demonstration so many years ago my father said on the way home:

"Son, never forget what you have seen tonight. After seeing that woman, anyone with all the faculties should be ashamed not to put them to their fullest use. She has never seen the dawn in russet mantle clad, as Shakespeare did, but she knows it just as well as he. She has the heart of a lion and the perceptions of a poet."

Helen Keller's teacher, Anne Sullivan Macy, deserved and received from people all over the world a vast credit for the success of the team. Between them, they worked out techniques to help the blind which were as practical as their story of struggle was inspiring. When Anne Sullivan, later Mrs.

John Macy, died nearly 20 years ago, many people thought Helen Keller would lose her effectiveness without her guiding hand. But it was not so. She has continued to travel the world, and since then has added two books to the four she had written before, ensuring that her story will remain alive after she is gone. "Son, never forget..." Her 75th birthday was a good reminder.

ORIGINALLY A MISSION

The Alamo originally was erected in 1718 as a Franciscan mission in San Pedro Springs, Texas. Moved to its present site in 1774, it was converted into a fort and figured prominently during the war for Texan independence from Mexico.

Lewiston was the first incorporated town in the Idaho territory and was the first capital of that state. Known as "Idaho's only seaport," it is at the head of navigation on the Snake and Columbia Rivers.

Who was "the only woman" in the life of Wyatt Earp, famous gun fighter of frontier times? Some say Tombstone Lilly, singer of the Bird Cage Theater, occupied that spot in Wyatt's lonely heart. Other legends have it that there was someone else. Read about Wyatt's only proposal of marriage in

The above pictures were taken in the banquet room of the Dunlap hotel the evening of Saturday, June 18 when members of the graduating class of 1938 of the Jacksonville high school enjoyed a reunion. There were 80 in attendance. A candid view of one of the tables included in the top picture, at the table nearest the camera, left to right starting with the gentleman facing the camera and on his side of the table: Lynn Ferguson, Eleanor Shaw Perkins, Robert Perkins, Margaret Dunnaway Niccum, Tony Niccum and Lambert Brockhouse. On the opposite side of the table, left to right: Beatrice Nichols Ferguson, Veda Mae Walker Hornbeck, Richard Hornbeck, Dicey Beggs Davis, Claude Davis, Virginia Reeve and John Reeve, Mrs. Wayne Ommen and Wayne Ommen.

Following the dinner a most enjoyable program was presented. "Pop" Hickie, whose son was a class member, proved an excellent master of ceremonies. The welcome was made by Major Charles Sevier, serving now with the Marines, who was the class president. Greetings from those unable to attend and a short history of the class was read by Ralph Thomson.

An impressive memorial service was conducted by Miriam Robinson who was assisted by Margaret Niccum, Thelma Wells, Veta Mae Hornbeck, Charlene Brockhouse, Marjorie Krone, Beatrice Ferguson, Josephine Smith, Eleanor Perkins, Nona Ervin, Hallie Cooper and Vivian Cox.

The ceremony honored the memory of 11 members of the class who have passed on: Ola Mae Armitage Placke, Lloyd Ellis, Morris Ingram, Paul Bryant, Tommy James, Warren Smith, Don Henry, John Flannigan, Raymond Gottschall, Robert Leith and Lowell Stillflew.

Readings were presented by Carmen Olson and several humorous selections by Andy Birdsell which were much enjoyed.

The clever table decorations, which appropriately carried out the school colors of red and white, were awarded as door prizes to the following: Charles and Sven Sevier for coming the greatest distance; Richard Husted for having the most children; Wayne Ommen and Sarah Goodey Mitchell, the two class members having changed the most and Harvey Scott, the one who had changed the least.

A radio was awarded to Geraldine Mellor Trulaski. Music for the program was provided by Howard Matteson. Plans were made for another such reunion to be held in June of 1958 with Earl Fioreth, Ralph Thomson, Bill Hoffmann and Bill Wade as co-chairmen. After the program the remainder of the evening was spent socially.

White Hall Woman's Granddaughter Bride

WHITE HALL—Miss Emily Louise Beggs, granddaughter of Mrs. W. S. Corsa of White Hall, became the bride of James Gibson Esarey of Oak Park, Illinois Sunday afternoon, June 26, at the Euclid avenue Methodist church in that city.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Beggs of Oak Park. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eugene Esarey of St. Joseph, Ill., and the late Mr. Esarey.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. Paul Tirk. The church was decorated with two large bouquets of white gladioli, on either side of the altar. The organist was Miss Dorothy Ness and the soloist Herman Struble.

The bride's attendants were Miss Sarah Jane Beggs, the bride's sister, maid of honor, and the following bridesmaids, Miss Langdon Collins and Miss Penny Malina, both of Chicago, Miss Susan Walters, Effingham, and Miss Carol Andrews of Rock Island. Five year old Dottie Allen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Allen of Carrollton, was the flower girl.

Clark Esarey of Minier, Illinois, served his brother as the best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Kermit Esarey, St. Joseph and Dwight Esarey, Salem, Ill., brothers of the bridegroom; Charles Jarville of Quincy; Airman First Class William Corsa Beggs from Charleston, South Carolina, brother of the bride, and Private Gregory Buckingham Beggs from El Paso, Texas, another brother of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon net, lace and tulle. The floor length skirt was worn over hoops. Her veil, attached to a Juliet cap of Rose Point lace made by her grandmother, Mrs. Corsa, was of nylon and extended to her finger tips. Her bouquet was of white carnations cascaded with stephanotis and centered with a red purple orchid.

The attendants were gowned in embroidered crystallette in identical style with sweetheart neckline and flaring ballerina length skirts. The maid of honor wore pastel blue and the bridesmaids were in rose. Each carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white carnations centered with tiny garnet roses.

The little flower girl wore a short full skirted white dress with touches of pink and blue in the skirt and carried a ballerina bouquet of white carnations against blue tulle. The bride's attendant's wore choker length strands of pearls, the gift of the bride.

The bride's mother and grandmother and the mother of the bridegroom wore orchids on dark blue afternoon dresses with each choosing white accessories.

Reception at Church

A reception was held in the church parlors. The serving table was centered with a tiered wedding cake topped with a beautiful little Dresden figurine depicting a pair of 18th Century courtiers. Mrs. Ralph Hetherlin and her daughter, Miss Ann, assisted with the introductions and were in charge of the guest book. Young people of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ehalt, assisted. Punch was poured by Mrs. William May, Miss Gertrude Nelson, Mrs. A. M. Reed and Mrs. Fred Peake, all of Oak Park. The ladies assisting all wore pink carnations.

When the couple left on a honeymoon to an undisclosed destination the bride was wearing a two piece beige dress with brown accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet. Upon their return from their wedding trip the couple will make their home in Dunlap, Illinois.

Mrs. Esarey graduated from the Oak Park-River Forest high school in 1951 and from the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois in 1955. She is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority and has sung in the choir of both the Wesley Foundation in Urbana and the Euclid Avenue Methodist church in Oak Park.

Mr. Esarey graduated in 1951 from the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois in 1955. He was president of Wesman Hall on the campus and also sang in the Wesley Foundation choir. He has accepted the position of vocational agriculture teacher in the community high school at Dunlap, Ill., near Peoria.

OPEN BIDS FOR NEW CHEWING GUM PLANT

NEW YORK (AP)—Bids were opened Monday by the American Chiclet Co. for the construction of a new plant at Rockford, Ill., but no announcement was made at once on award of the job.

A spokesman for the chewing gum company said a decision on acceptance of a bid probably would be made before the end of the week.

Names of bidders, and amounts for which they offered to build the new plant, were not disclosed.

The plant, to produce chewing gum, will be the second to be established by the company in this country. Its present plant is in Long Island City, Queens. It also has some factories abroad.

Record Smashing Auto Production Pace To Fall Off

DETROIT (AP)—The hottest production pace in automotive industry soon will taper off—perhaps by mid-July.

The auto makers approach the end of the year's first half with new records in almost every phase of their operations. In production the six month total will come to almost 4 1/2 million units. In retail deliveries the total is estimated at approximately 3 1/2 million.

Unofficial estimates of the manufacturers' dollar volume in passenger cars alone put the six-month total at roughly six billion dollars. In addition there probably were a couple billion dollars more in replacement parts and coach and truck production.

The industry obviously will not maintain through the July-December half the average 700,000-unit monthly production that marked the first six months. But the decline probably will not be as severe as some sources have suggested.

The sharpest part of the production drop will come in the July-September quarter. That's when most of the new model change-over work is expected. Most new models will be brought out in October. Increasing competition will stimulate assembly line output in the October-December quarter.

NEW WAY TO GET THE IN-LAWS OUT

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Vienna's "Call - Service" will take your mother-in-law for an auto ride for the equivalent of 60 cents per hour plus 8 cents for every five-eighths of a mile driven.

All you have to do is to pick up the telephone, dial Vienna U 14000 and a man will come with a car.

AEC Construction Bill Passes House; Waits Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House passed without opposition and sent to the Senate Monday a $267,709,000 construction program for the Atomic Energy Commission.

It did not give President Eisenhower authority to build the 21 million dollar nuclear-powered exhibit ship he has asked to demonstrate peaceful uses of atomic energy to other nations of the world. Instead, the bill authorizes spending 25 million dollars for a power reactor for a surface ship adaptable either for military or commercial uses.

Some members of the Senate-Atomic Energy Committee, which knocked Eisenhower's ship out of the bill, have criticized the President's proposed ship as a "showboat" which they say would "pirate" valuable scientists from other more important projects.

The House approved the AEC authorization by voice vote. Actual funds for the construction program must be provided in separate legislation.

The bill gives a go-ahead for construction of new projects at AEC installations throughout the country. And it authorizes five million dollars to start the President's program to help other nations build atomic power reactors.

RARE IN ILLINOIS, PLENTIFUL IN TEXAS

Clifford Alexander, 601 North Clay avenue, found a horned toad in his yard Monday afternoon and was displaying it in the business district.

Walter Long of Amarillo, Texas, who met Mr. Alexander said that the horned toads are plentiful in Texas.

Mr. Long said that they are harmless and that he has carried them around in his pocket.

The horned toad, Mr. Long said, are fond of ants and will clean up an ant hill in a short time.

Mr. Alexander said he found the toad near an ant hill in his yard.

Horned toads are seldom found in Illinois. Mr. Long said that the toad probably climbed on to an automobile and hitch hiked to Jacksonville.

Wilson's Aces Play Legion 9 Here Saturday

The Wilson's Aces, one of the finest junior baseball teams in the St. Louis area, will be in Jacksonville Saturday afternoon for a 1:30 engagement with the local American Legion team.

The Aces play around 60 games each year and take on all comers. They don't limit their opposition to Legion players. The local team can field older boys if their manager so wishes.

The game will be played on the Nichols Park field.

The following Monday, July 4, on this same field the Legion nine tangles with visiting Maplewood. The Maplewood (Missouri) entry finished third in last year's National picture and is currently one of the hottest teams in this part of the country. They featured a section of the Sporting News recently.

Monday's game will start at the same time, 1:30.

K. Of C. Beats John Ellis 12-6

The Knights of Columbus Pony league team continued its winning ways last night as it scored a 12-6 decision over John Ellis in Nichols Park action.

Fortado paced the hitting for the winners with four-for-four including a third inning homer. Allison homered for John Ellis in the fourth.

'Little Poison' Back In Name Of Nellie Fox

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)—It's been some 20 years since the big leagues had a "Little Poison" batter, but tiny Nellie Fox of the Chicago White Sox is gaining that sobriquet among American League pitchers.

The record book says Jacob Nellie Fox is 5 feet 8 and weighs 150, yet the belting bantam from St. Thomas, Pa., won't argue if you call him smaller on both counts.

The thing that does count is that Fox carried a .339 batting average into Tuesday night's game with the Detroit Tigers at Comiskey Park.

He's the main reason the Pale Hose have stayed within close reach of the New York Yankees, even though the likes of Minnie Minoso, Jim Rivera and Jim Busby are trying to hit 250.

"I've had lots of luck at bat, especially on the last road trip," said the 27-year-old Fox. "I'm swinging all the time and I'm connecting."

BROOKLYN (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers, who had hit just one home run in their last five games while winding up a western trip, returned to cozy Ebbets Field Tuesday night and belted their 98th, 99th and 100th homers of the season in a 6-5 victory over the faded New York Giants.

Duke Snider smashed No. 10 to give the Dodgers the winning margin. It came in the eighth off Hoyt Wilhelm, third New York pitcher.

The first two homers came back-to-back as Jackie Robinson and Carl Furillo laid the wood to a pair of tosses by loser Sal Maglie. The Giant righthander.

All of the homers came with the bases empty.

The Giants outthrew the Dodgers 11-8, but suffered their fourth straight setback and tumbled to fifth place.

Chicago Bids For Title Go

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's bid for the Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore heavyweight title bout Tuesday developed an effort to land the expected September match for huge Soldier Field.

James H. Gately, president of the Chicago Park Board, announced the lake front arena was available to James Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, for the Marciano-Moore showdown.

It would make the first major boxing event in Soldier Field since the 1926 Dempsey-Tunney classic.

A decision on the site may be made in New York Thursday.

Chicago, New York, New Orleans and Los Angeles all are attempting to land the bout.

Reds Stop Cardinals 9-1 Behind Nuxhall

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Johnny Temple drove in five runs with four hits and Joe Nuxhall, though missing a third straight shutout, pitched a steady nine-hit ball Monday night to give the Cincinnati Reds a 9-1 victory that broke a three-game winning streak of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Husky Lefty Nuxhall, gaining his eighth triumph against four defeats, had extended to 24 his string of consecutive scoreless innings before St. Louis scored its only run in the seventh frame.

The Reds, by then, had hammered into defeat Floyd Woodriddle, rookie St. Louis righthander, and mused up his first replacement, Gordon Jones, as Temple paced the 12-hit visitors' attack with three singles and a triple.

Former Redbird Ray Jablonski also hit a two-run homer, his eighth.

Lou Kahn, finishing out his first month as first base coach under Manager Harry Walker of the Cardinals, was thumped out of a majors league game for the first time, drawing a heave-ho from umpire Damrau, rf.

Frank Dascoli for protesting a decision at first base in the fifth inning.

The Cards scored their only run when Bill Virdon singled, Royer was hit and Nelson Burbrink followed with a single.

HOPE FOR EARLY AGREEMENT ON TITLE FIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—With a half-dozen cities apparently in the running for the fight of the year, the International Boxing Club said Monday night it hopes to get an agreement for the Rocky Marciano-Archie Moore heavyweight title bout by Friday and perhaps earlier.

"But as to the site and date, there's a lot that has to be settled," said IBC Managing Director Harry Markson.

New York, Chicago, New Orleans, Houston, Los Angeles and Milwaukee are among the cities in running, said Markson.

Hard Fought Duels Feature Women's Golf

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Three tightly fought duels featured the second round of the Women's State Amateur Golf Tournament at Champaign Country Club Tuesday with the only two champions in the field, Ruth More of Pekin and Lois Drafe of LaGrange, among the survivors.

Miss More, the defending champion, had to make up two holes to tie the Nan Berry of Quincy on the 18th where Miss Berry three-putted. The Quincy girl then three-putted on the 19th to lose.

Miss Drafe beat Mrs. Dwight Anneaux of Hinsdale on the 19th when she laid her approach shot a couple of feet from the pin for a birdie while her foe was wild off the tee. Mrs. Anneaux won the 13th, 15th and 18th holes to tie the match.

In the third battle Mrs. Robert Parcells of Naperville went to the 20th hole to beat 15-year old Barbara Slobe, the Wakegan champion. Mrs. Parcells sank a 15-foot putt to end the match.

Other second round results:

Pat Leith, Elgin, defeated Cynthia Ziock, Rockford, 4 and 3; Meriam Bailey, Palatine, defeated Mrs. Charles Sanborn, Naperville, 7 and 5; Vernie Pico, Galesburg, defeated Mrs. Guy Tucker, West Frankfort, 5 and 3; Greta Leone,

American Girls Winners At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Four American girls—Doris Hart, Louise Brough, Beverly Baker Fleitz and Darlene Hard—won straight set victories in singles quarterfinals matches Tuesday to insure that the United States will provide a 12th straight woman champion when the tennis title is decided Saturday.

The winners at this tennis center's championship play were:

Top seeded Miss Duff of Coral Gables, Fla., 6-4, 6-3, over Mrs. Dorothy Head Knobe, Alameda, Calif.

Second seeded Miss Brough, Beverly Hills, Calif., 6-2, 6-0, over Beryl Penrose, seventh seeded from Australia.

Third seeded Mrs. Fleitz, Long Beach, Calif., 6-2, 6-2 over eighth seeded Angela Buxton, England.

Sixth seeded Miss Hard, Long Beach, Calif., 6-2, 6-3, over Zsuzsi Koermoczy, Hungary.

When four players from one country win four quarterfinals without the loss of a set and after the loss of only 18 games that country can be judged absolutely supreme.

In a late afternoon match, America's Davis Cup doubles pair, Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert, defeated a pair of young Los Angeles players, Bob Perry and Gil Shea, 8-6, 6-1, 6-1.

Boston Takes 2 From Senators

WASHINGTON (AP)—Boston spurred for eight runs in the ninth inning to defeat Washington, 8-2, in the second game of a double-header Tuesday night after the Red Sox also captured the first game, 4-0, behind Frank Sullivan's 3-hit pitching.

The Senators' Bob Porterfield had a 2-0 lead entering the ninth, but Jackie Jensen clipped him for a single and Norm Zaichin banged a home run into the leftfield bleachers to tie the score. Sammy White was awarded first base on interference when Catcher Bruce Edwards tipped his bat. Grady Hatton singled and Jim Piersall doubled to shell Porterfield and produce another run.

Pinch-hitter Eddie Joost greeted Bob Chakales with a two-run single and Billy Goodman beat out a hunt before Billy Klaus sacrificed. Chakales balked while issuing an intentional pass to Fave Throneberry, enabling Joost to score, and Goodman came across when Jensen forced Throneberry. Zaichin got his second hit of the inning, a double to left, scoring Jensen, before White grounded out to end the spree.

Sullivan, who blanked Detroit on two hits in his last start, ran a scoreless streak to 23 innings in the first game.

Pirates Edge Phillies 7-5

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Four 10th inning singles, coupled with a fielder's choice, broke up a tie Monday night as the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the Philadelphia Phillies 7-5. The Pittsburgh victory came after the Phillies put a 3-0 lid on a suspended April 24 game with the Pirates.

In the Pirates' 10th, Tom Saffell and Dick Cole singled. Then, with one out, Frank Thomas singled home Dale Long, who had homered in the eighth, also singled with Cole scoring. Toby Atwell's hard grounder forced Long at second but Thomas scored.

The Phils threatened in the bottom of the tenth, scoring one run on a pair of singles and Richie Ashburn's double but couldn't quite make the grade.

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

If we were living in Baltimore or an Oriole fan we would be starting to wonder just what this guy Paul Richards is doing. With the exception of Dee Fillette all of the "old Brownsies" are gone. This may be good or it may not but regardless of how you look at it the old St. Louis American League entry was never the pushover this present Baltimore club is. Monday night the Birds dropped a contest to a class B York team to the tune of 13-1. Of course we realize the Major league teams seldom play their big stars in these exhibition contests but it's still a disgrace to be beaten this bad by a Piedmont League ball team.

Tribe Scores 6 In 2nd To Give Mike Garcia His Fourth Victory

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians struggled through to a 7-5 victory Tuesday over the Kansas City Athletics, on the momentum of a six-run second inning which included four unearned runs — three of them on a homer by Larry Doby.

Mike Garcia won his fourth victory against nine losses, although he allowed ex-Indian Harry Simpson a two-run homer in the fifth and was knocked off the mound in the sixth.

Kansas City tied the score 1-1 in the second on Jim Finigan's double, driving in Vic Power, who had singled.

The Tribe's big second inning opened with George Strickland was called out on strikes and Jim Heagan beating out a single. After striking out Garcia, Art Dittmar walked Gene Woodling and Bobby Avila. Al Smith singled in two runs, and then Hector Lopez muffed Al Rosen's pop fly, Avila scoring. Doby's seventh homer of the season drove in Smith and Rosen.

Garcia's departure came after doubles by Finigan and Lopez, the crowning blow being a pinch single by Elmer Valo. Ray Narleski finished, but Kansas City got a total of 14 hits.

Top seeded Miss Harkness, Gables, Fla., 6-4, 6-3, over Mrs. Dorothy Head Knode, Alameda Calif.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market declined Tuesday on moderate volume.

A slight increase in selling pressure at the very end sent many shares to their lows of the day, and declines ranged to more than $2. The steels, rubbers, televisions, rails and oils were among the losers. Some chemicals and aircrafts were strong, however.

It was a pretty quiet day. Volume totaled only 2,180,000 shares, smallest since May 31, when 1,990,000 shares were traded. Monday, 2,250,000 shares changed hands.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks slipped 40 cents to $172.20. The industrials lost 40 cents and the rails 90 cents while the utilities improved 10 cents.

One market analyst commented Tuesday that "a breathing spell" was in order at this point after the recent rise to new heights. The unresolved steel wage situation also was said to have led some investors to adopt a cautious policy on new commitments.

American Stock Exchange prices declined on volume of 970,000 shares, down from 1,040,000 shares Monday.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Industrial obligations, especially those convertible into common stock, were under moderate selling pressure Tuesday. But the rest of the bond market was narrowly mixed.

U. S. government bonds were fairly steady.

"Big Board" volume jumped to $4,790,000 par value from $3,790,000 Monday. Investment quality railroads and utilities fluctuated narrowly. Many medium-grade carriers improved. But industrials declined.

Weather Forces Grain Prices To Decline Tuesday

By LAWRENCE N. ELDRED

CHICAGO (AP)—Favorable crop growing weather battled export news as dominant influences on the Board of Trade Tuesday. In most respects weather won and prices declined.

Nearly wheat contracts sagged as weather cleared over some southwestern winter crop harvest areas and receipts at terminals began to close the gap between a year ago and the present.

On the other hand, more distant deliveries gained on announcement the U. S. quota for exports under the International Wheat Agreement will be the same for next year as for this.

Wheat finished 1 1/2 cents lower to 1 1/4 higher, corn was unchanged to 1/4 higher, oats 3/4-1/2 lower and rye 1 to 1 1/4 down. Soybeans were 1/4-1 1/4 cents lower and lard unchanged to 8 cents a hundred-weight lower.

The May soybean crush was announced as a million bushels higher than in April and 3 1/2 million bigger than May a year ago. For the October-May period, crushings this year were 10 million higher than last year.

July soybeans had some help against the general downturn as Denmark bought 100,000 bushels overnight from this country's narrowing supply.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

CHICAGO (AP)—Further declines fresh pork prices sent hogs to the scales at steady to 25 cents lower values Tuesday. Receipts of 8,500 head were in line with indications.

Both cattle and sheep markets held to generally steady levels.

In hogs, choice barrows and gilts mainly brought $17.75 to $20.50 while sows were mostly cashed at $13.25 to $17.50. A few decks of butcher weight hogs sold at $20.75 and one deck at $21.00. Some butcher type sows in light flesh reached $18.00.

Most steers and yearlings grading good to prime sold from $18.50 to $23.75. A part load took $24.00. Good to prime heifers made $19.00 to $23.00.

The best price for cows was $14.00, for bulls $16.50 and for vealers was $23.00 on choice grade and $24.00 on odd head testing prime.

Choice and prime spring lambs carried a narrow range of $22.00 to $23.00. Two decks of mostly choice spring lambs brought $18.00. Ewes remained at $5.00 and below a hundredweight on choice and poorer kinds.

Announce Minor Flaw In Remapping Bill As Stratton Signs It

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Discovery of a technical flaw in the legislative redistricting bill was announced Tuesday as Gov. Stratton signed it into law. The bill sets up new legislative districts for the first time in 54 years.

Stratton read an opinion from Atty. Gen. Latham Castle saying the defect was not serious and should not jeopardize validity of the historic remapping plan.

The flaw in the bill cropped up in connection with the First Senate and Third House districts in Cicero. The bill contained a reference to the Township of Cicero instead of the legally correct title of Town of Cicero.

Castle said the boundaries of the town are the same as the former township, abolished in 1867.

"This defect appears not to be serious," Castle said.

A similar situation developed in the 1947 congressional redistricting bill in a mixup over use of the word Village of Stickney instead of Township of Stickney. The Supreme Court upheld the law.

Filibusters and behind-the-scenes maneuvering dogged the course of the remapping bill.

The lawmakers had a gun at their backs to get the job done under the Blue Ballot Amendment approved by voters last November. If the Assembly had failed to re-apportion, the task would have been given to a commission named by the governor.

The new lineup creates 59 House districts, an increase of 8 over the present number. Senate districts total 58, an increase of 7.

Under a major revision, downstate will surrender its control of the House the first time in history, electing 87 members to 90 for Cook County. The downstate area will hold a 34 to 24 Senate majority.

The new districts will be used for the first time in the 1956 primary and election, and the reapportioned Legislature will hold its first session in 1957.

House districts must be redrawn again in 1963 and every succeeding 10 years on a population basis. Senate districts are frozen on an area basis.

With downstate losing 9 House seats, some veteran lawmakers are thrown into the same districts. The reshuffle will force the retirement of about 25 members from the House although some may run for the Senate.

Morgan County Turning "Cold Shoulder" To Blood Donor Plea

By DOROTHY MAES

The little inconvenience of an hour of your time on Friday, July 1, to donate blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile which services Morgan county and protects each and every one of her residents may mean the difference of life and death to You. The Red Cross blood in this area, the headquarters of which is in St. Louis, is alarmingly low, so low it has caused great concern to the Red Cross authorities who realize with the long Fourth of July holiday weekend coming up there may be a disastrous drain on the diminishing supply in the area.

Mrs. Eleanor Hart Moran, Once Of City, Dies At 42

Word has been received by friends in the city of the death last week of Eleanor Hart Moran, former Jacksonville resident, who died at the age of forty-two. Mrs. Moran spent most of her childhood in this city and the family is well known here.

Funeral services were held last Friday at the Utter-McKinley Chapel in Los Angeles, Calif., with burial made in the Inglewood cemetery.

Mrs. Moran was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hart and moved with her parents to California a number of years ago. She is survived by her husband, Frank Moran, and a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Monett. Her father, Albert Hart, and one sister, Mrs. T. P. Manning, all of California, also survive together with a brother, D. W. Hart, who lives in Utah.

The family will meet friends at the funeral home from 8 to 10 p.m. Wednesday.

Late Tuesday morning Mrs. Leda Lewis, secretary of the Morgan County Red Cross Chapter received permission by long distance telephone conversation with the St. Louis office that Morgan county people who gave blood in April at the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be allowed to donate at the visit this Friday, July 1st. at the Masonic Temple.

The Bloodmobile will be in Jacksonville on July 1 and be here for one day only. Volunteer Red Cross helpers are phoning former and prospective donors daily in an effort to at least get 175 donors for the one day visit.

On Monday only 15 had agreed to give blood. This is a disheartening response. Most tragedy or sickness strike to bring home to people the great need for blood?

34 Pints To Morgan Man

Not too long ago a Jacksonville man suffering from leukemia received 34 pints of Red Cross blood which undoubtedly lengthened his life. Seventeen of the man's friends responded with replacements of blood but at no time when the blood was needed was there any question but that it would be supplied. This was because Morgan county is a part of the Red Cross Blood Program and the blood was available. Now that supply is about gone and Morgan residents must rally to this danger and at least supply the required quota of 175 pints on Friday.

One of the drawbacks for the July visit is that donors who gave blood during the last visit in April are not quite eligible for the June visit. There is one week lacking between the required time before an April donor is allowed to give blood again. Many Morgan county donors who gave in April are insisting on helping out this time but will not be accepted unless there is permission granted from the Red Cross authorities out of St. Louis. Should this be done both press and radio announcements will be made.

Women phoning for donors in Morgan county include Mrs. Paul Hartley, Mrs. Arthur French, Mrs. R. M. Norris, Miss Alma Mackness, Mrs. Wayne Wood, Mrs. John Thelens, Mrs. Louise Cain, Mrs. Karl Baker, Mrs. Louise Pessina, Mrs. W. H. Kurtz and Mrs. James L. Bunch.

The Bloodmobile unit will be located at the Masonic Temple on West College avenue from 12 noon until 6 p.m. daylight time on Friday. Volunteer donors not having appointments and wishing to wait a turn in line are most welcome. If at all possible donors are asked to phone the local Red Cross chapter office, 1844, and make an appointment during the above specified hours. Anyone between the ages of 18 and 60 and in good health may give blood.

Three hours prior to giving blood donors are asked not to eat fatty foods such as butter, cream, meats, etc. They may have tea (with out cream or sugar) black coffee, dry toast, jellies, honey, raw fruits, juices, raw vegetables, etc. This precaution is for the protection of the party to receive the blood and in the process necessary in preparing the whole blood for storing after taken from the donor.

If Jacksonville and Morgan county have been wise enough to subscribe to the Red Cross Blood program, and its residents grateful enough for its life-saving qualities, its people should most certainly be BIG enough to support it.

Otto E. Beerup

A vocal and instrumental vocal combination organized in Jacksonville 18 years ago is now one of the top TV programs in the Southwest. Right now the members of the unit are on a dual pleasure and business trip: a vacation with friends and relatives of this area and an inspection tour of Mrs. Tucker's Products plant in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Tucker's is something they've been talking about on their program, but this is the first time that they've seen the Jacksonville plant. They talk about Mrs. Tucker's Products because they are sponsored by the Western Cotton Oil Company, an allied Anderson, Clayton subsidiary.

Getting back to Morgan county in 1937 Harold (Stubby) Daniels, Miss Louise Driver and her brother, Kenny, and Miss Lucille Wyatt were voice students of Mrs. Lois Harney Floeth. Daniels played the clarinet; Louise, now Mrs. Daniels, was an accordionist; Kenny plucked the bass and Lucille, now Mrs. Driver, played the guitar.

They were on the staff of several small radio stations in Tennessee, Iowa and Nebraska before they hit Oklahoma City, where they were employed for 14 years by the same sponsor.

But the spell of TV got too powerful and a year ago the Paymaster Serenaders took over the 12:30-1 p.m. spot on Station KCBQ, Channel 11, Lubbock, Texas.

The Serenaders specialize in what Stubby terms "family type vocal and instrumental music." Popular numbers and songs of the plains and mountains are mingled with honey conversation to build up an immense audience in the Southwest. The group also travels extensively for personal appearances.

Sometimes Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Driver team up for piano duets, and so do their daughters, Betty Ann Driver, 16, and Donna Kaye Daniels, 8. Jeanne Lou Daniels is only 15 months old, but she also shows up on the TV program.

The visitors had heard considerable about the Jacksonville plant but were amazed at its size as they were led through the many buildings and installations by Sam Pack.

Girls State's 451 'Citizens' Depart For Homes Today

Illini Girls State's 454 teen-age delegates board buses this morning for homes in all corners of Illinois as the American Legion Auxiliary's mythical "49th state" passes from existence for another year.

For more than a week, the girls have been learning the hows and whys of state government through experience—by setting up and operating the government of a mock state on the MacMurray College campus.

The girls spent Tuesday, the last full day of their stay in Jacksonville, on a tour of government offices and historic spots in Springfield. Included in Tuesday's jaunt was a visit to the executive mansion, where the Girls Staters were welcomed by Governor Stratton.

At a final awards assembly in MacMurray's Annie Merner chapel Tuesday night, two of the 454—governor Marcia Kittelsen of Park Ridge and runner-up Mary Lou Rector of Hoopston—were named delegates to Girls Nation, which convenes August 4-10 in Washington, D. C.

Carol Carpenter, a 22-year-old college senior and daughter of Illinois Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, accompanied the Girls Staters back from Springfield Tuesday evening and remained with them for the night. She was made an honorary citizen of Girls State, 1955.

Illinois Senate Passes State Veterans' Bonus; Bill To Gov. Stratton

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P) — A State bonus for Korean War veterans passed the Illinois Senate Tuesday by a vote of 34 to 2 and advanced to Gov. Stratton.

If the governor signs it, the proposed 150 million dollar bond issue for paying the bonuses will be subject to adoption or rejection at a statewide referendum in November, 1956.

Bonuses to an estimated 240,000 Illinois veterans of the Korean War would be based on $15 a month for overseas service and $10 a month for domestic service between June 26, 1950 and July 26, 1953.

The top payment would be $555 and the minimum $50. Survivors of an estimated 2,500 Illinoisans killed in the Korean fighting would receive $900.

The Korean bonus bonds would be retired over 20 years by taxes on harness racing and liquor.

Gov. Stratton has not given any clear indication of his stand but his Senate leaders had suggested a two-year delay until a legislative commission could study the question.

Sen. Daniel D. Rostenkowski (D-Chicago), in urging support of the bill, asserted that the "dogfaces who fought the Korean War" deserve a bonus as much as Illinois veterans of the first and second World wars. Rostenkowski served 16 months in Korea.

Sen. Dennis J. Collins (R-DeKalb), who was one of four senators voting present, said passage of the bill "will put the governor in a bad position."

Sen. Arthur J. Bidwill of River Forest, Republican majority leader, repeated arguments that it would be better to have a study made before deciding on the bonuses.

Before quitting until Wednesday morning, the Senate passed the three Chicago convention hall bills which were the target of a lengthy filibuster in the House earlier this month.

A vote of 44 to 3 moved the legislation to the governor, who supported it.

The bills create a Metropolitan Fair and Exposition Authority to issue revenue bonds for constructing and operating a 34 million dollar exposition building and convention hall on Chicago's lake front.

Some of the money will come from the fair and exposition fund, which is fed by state taxes on horse race betting. Rep. John Morris (D-Chadwick), who led the House filibuster, had contended that downstate fairs also should be allowed to share in the fund.

Sen. Bidwill said Tuesday that Chicago for years has contributed to the agricultural premium fund, which helps support county fairs, and that the city was entitled to share in racing tax revenue.

Other Senate action included killing a bill which would have prohibited the sale of most types of sparklers and passing an appropriation of $262,596,000 to run the Illinois public aid program during the next two years.

Virginia Farmer, Lee Cooper, 70, Dies Tuesday

CHANDLERVILLE—Lee Cooper, 70, former farmer near Chandler, died Tuesday at Our Saviour's hospital where he had been a patient for one month. He had farmed near Chandlerville until two years ago when he moved to a farm east of Virginia.
